

Big bound illustrated volume · 36 pages

€ 19,90 · In 28,5 x 28,5 cm format

From 4 years upwards

THE VALUE OF BEING TOGETHER AND NEVER FEELING ALONE

THE RIGHT PLACE

THE BOOK

Little squirrel, after a long and cold winter, decides to go in search of a mysterious place, a place where he feels he needs to go. He knows very well that the right place exists somewhere but he doesn't know exactly where.

To find the right place he asks Woodpecker, Turtle, Tit, Mole and Owl along the way.

Thanks to their suggestions he decides to stop by "a big tree with deep roots and wide and long branches". The right place!

A big tree able to understand the needs of everyone and where nobody feels lonely...

TEXTS

Beatrice Masini: she lives and works in Milan. Journalist, translator of novels (including Harry Potter, from the third volume of the series onwards). She has published forty books for children and teens, including illustrated albums and collections of short stories and novels, many of them published in many different languages.

ILLUSTRATIONS

Simona Mulazzani: she lives and works in Pesaro. She works with Italian, American, Japanese and French publishers. She has created many picture books but also commercials, short films and television themes, many of them award-winning and highly successful.