

Bound and illustrated volume

40 pages

Format 25 x 23,5 cm

Age: 6+

€ 16,90

Isbn 978-88-6945-087-7

A METAPHORICAL JOURNEY, A PATH OF GROWTH, THE STRENGTH OF THOSE WHO CHALLENGE CHRONIC DISEASE

THE DOOR ON THE WATER

THE BOOK

Chiara is a singer rabbit and Orlando is a porcupine who loves to explore. Fabia is a very responsible raccoon. The river is their life. That's why, when the river dries, they all start looking for the only key that can reopen the Great Gate that adjusts the waters... This story is dedicated to all the children who face kidney disease, accompanying them in their journey of hard work but also of inexhaustible courage.

THE AUTHORS

SABINA COLLOREDO, tale. One of the most important contemporary authors of children books, but not only. She wrote historical and mythological novels, as well as female biographies, all translated abroad in numerous languages.

ANNALISA BEGHELLI, illustrations. After graduating in Architecture, she chose to follow his passion for drawing and make it her profession, specializing in illustration and editorial design.

Series Squared stories

Illustrated books with short and delicate stories designed for children, and with final pages of activity. A series which collects stories able of telling important and difficult topics with light words.