

Bound and illustrated volume

40 pages

23,5 x 23,5 cm

Age: 3+

€ 15,90

Isbn 978-88-6945-070-9

A TALE DEDICATED TO FAR EAST
TO REDISCOVER IT TOGETHER, YOUNG AND GROWNUPS

THE NIGHTINGALE

THE BOOK

Once upon a time the Emperor of China lived in the most beautiful kingdom of the world, such a splendour that visitors came endlessly from every known country to admire it.

Yet the greatest wonder of that kingdom was a nightingale, whose song was the most agreeable never heard. So one day the Emperor required the amazing bird to be taken to palace, in order to perform in front of his court, and...

THE AUTHORS

Text adapted from a tale by Hans Christian Andersen

ELENA CECCATO, illustrations.

Series From tale to tale

Tales, myths and classic legends, always fresh in the memories of every child, now proposed in a brand new series, with a “squared” format, big and coloured illustrations, and short texts.

All these elements were thought to help children approaching the tradition of classic tales and myths, whose magic remains untouched by time.

In the same series:

THUMBELINA

Isbn 978-88-6945-061-7