

Bound and illustrated volume

36 pages

Format 23,5 x 23,5 cm

Age: 3+

€ 15,90

Isbn 978-88-6945-083-9

AN INVALUABLE METAPHOR TO TELL
THE GROWTH OF CHILDREN AND THE LINK BETWEEN BROTHERS

THE THREE LITTLE PIGS

THE BOOK

Once upon a time there were three little pigs who lived with their mother nearby to the woods. One day Mama said to them: “Dear my little pigs, you are too old now to stay here with me. It’s time for you to go out into the world and build your home.”

The three little pigs walked and eachone of them built his own house. But lurking around was the bad wolf... Which house will resist to its powerful breath?

THE AUTHOR

From a fairy tale of the european tradition

LORENZO SANGIÒ, illustrations. Young freelance illustrator, graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts in Brescia, he approached illustration by attending the course of Ars in Fabula.

This is his second illustrated book published in Italy.

Series From tale to tale

This series collects some of the most beautiful, well-known and less-known stories, designed to accompany the goodnight of children but also to make them reflect, to recognize and identify themselves. In short, to help them grow. Because fairy tales are a precious treasure to keep and share with everyone: big ones, small and smaller ones.

Other titles of the series:

THUMBELINA

Isbn 978-88-6945-061-7

THE NIGHTINGALE

Isbn 978-88-6945-070-9