

RIDE AWAY!

THE BOOK

“Ride Away!” is the new book by the eclectic Gek Tessaro: an entertaining catalogue of horses, the animal that he loves to draw the most... In this book, horses also become representations of the conflict between different civilizations. Helmets, uniforms, armour and flags are used to emphasize the different origins of the knights.

“Ride Away” is an invitation, a suggestion: get out of here! Run away! Save yourself! Abandon this ridiculous logic of confrontation! Do this with the same horse with which you were prepared to do battle: ride away!

Text and illustrations by Gek Tessaro

A multifaceted author, Gek Tessaro is equally at home with literature for children, illustrations and theatre. He was awarded the 2010 Andersen Award for best complete author, the National Nati per Leggere (Born to Read) Award in 2011 and the 2012 Andersen Award for best-illustrated book with “The heart of Quixote”.
