

Bound and illustrated volume

40 pages

Format 25 x 23,5 cm

From 3 years of age

€ 16,90

Isbn 978-88-6945-063-1

TO TALK TO CHILDREN, WITH NO FEAR,
ABOUT THEIR STRONG MOTHERS
WHO FACE EVERY DAY WITH TENACITY
AN UNPREDICTABLE ENEMY.

A FORMIDABLE DANCE COMPETITION

THE BOOK

The Red Chick is brave and tenacious. Every day she trains for hours to take part to the great dance competition, supported by his chicks and cock. But an enemy threatens her: will the Red Chick succeed to dodge the attacks of the Invisible Wolf, who is trying to make her fail in the exhibition?

With light words and sweetness, this story tells about all the mothers who struggle against multiple sclerosis and about their strength in this journey. An impervious but passable journey, if they are supported and sustained by the love of the people they are surrounded by.

THE AUTHORS

EMANUELA NAVA, tale. Famous writer for children, she has published many successful books, translated in different countries of the world. Her texts speak about the things she cares most.

PATRIZIA LA PORTA, illustrations. Born in Rome, she lives and works in Milan. She has illustrated books for many Italian and foreign publishers. From 2004 she holds an illustration course at the European Institute of Design of Milan.

Series Squared stories

Illustrated books, with short simple stories aimed at the youngest readers, and with activity pages at the end.

A series collecting stories able to talk about important topics with soft and delicate words.