

UNDER THE SAME SKY

COMING OUT: OCTOBER 2009

This original book has been created to celebrate the Astronomy Year. It comes out thanks to the cooperation among Carthusia Publishing, Emergency and INAF (Italian logo for National Institute of Astrophysics). Inside this book you will find amazing pictures along with wonderful illustrations, both aimed to explain the known universe.

The text is a sort of poem by Roberto Piumini: it's the story of a group of women, men and children who left their place to find better life and build a better future somewhere else. Their trip happens under the protective "eye" of the sky and its stars.

Along with the poem by Roberto Piumini, you will also find a scientific section about the Earth and the other planets, the Sun and the stars, the Moon, the galaxies, the Polaris and the stars birth.

This project speaks about the meeting between people and worlds. It wants to remind us how small we are if compared with the universe, but at the same time how close we are while walking along the same life road.
