

Series

From treasure to treasure

Not all treasures lie at the bottom of the sea...

This series is inspired by objects, things and treasures coming from the past, in order to invent new great tales for children. The pocket format includes big pictures and posters and a little historical section, in order to clarify any reader's doubts.

88 or 92 pages
Size: 12 x 21 cm
Age: 8-12 years
Euro: 11,50

KINGS OF THE WORLD

or The Stolen Iron Crown
(I RE DEL MONDO ovvero la Corona Ferrea rubata)

This is a cunning mystery for young detectives. It is the story of the disappearance of the Iron Crown on the Eve of Napoleon's Coronation in early 19th century Lombardy.

Text by: Roberto Piumini
Illustrations by: Gianni De Conno
Historical section by:
Marilena Caimi, Enrica Meregalli

*Honour list 2006
Ibby International
as best illustrator*

GARIBALDI'S JEANS

or How Celestina won her battle
(I JEANS DI GARIBALDI ovvero come Celestina vinse la sua battaglia)

This historical novel talks about a meeting between Giuseppe, a young guy marching with The Thousand Army towards Palermo and Celestina, a lonely girl. They will embark together on the journey as the General's followers and will discover that Garibaldi used to wear strange eccentric trousers.

Text by: Luisa Mattia
Illustrations by: Paolo d'Altan
Historical section by: Marco Pizzo
English edition
Translation by: Jonathan Cox