

TEMPORARY COVER

Bound and illustrated volume

36 pages

Format 23,5 x 23,5 cm

Age 3+

€ 15,90

Isbn 978-88-6945-000-6

A FAIRY TALE TO REFLECT WITH THE YOUNGSTERS ON THE VALUE OF THINGS

THE GOLDEN FISH

THE BOOK

There once was a fisherman and his wife. One morning the man caught a golden fish, which in exchange for his freedom promised to fulfill his every wish. The fisherman, who had a big and generous heart, left him free without asking anything. When the wife, who instead had a small and unsatisfied heart, heard of the little fish she began to make wishes and could no longer stop. This fairy tale teaches us to weigh the value of things, to enjoy what we have, what we are and what we manage to conquer without being slave of the continuous thirst to have more.

THE AUTHORS

From a tale by Aleksandr Pushkin

ELENA CECCATO, illustrations. She studied to become a painter, but then she discovered illustrated books. For her drawings he uses only pencils and pastels and always loves to find new points of view.

Series From tale to tale

The fairy tales and classic legends, always green in the infancy of every child of yesterday and today, wear new clothes in this colorful series, with large illustrations and short texts, thought to bring the youngsters closer to the magic of timeless narrations.

Other titles of the series:

THUMBELINA

Isbn 978-88-6945-061-7

THE NIGHTINGALE

Isbn 978-88-6945-070-9

THE THREE LITTLE PIGS

Isbn 978-88-6945-083-9

