A FOSTER-MOTHER FOR PRINCESS MARTINA

THE BOOK

This story deals with the delicate subject of foster care, but it can also be an opportunity to help children to cope with situations where one or both parents are away for various reasons: from disease to hospitalization, or from being in prison to a long journey.

THE AUTHORS

Texts: Beatrice Masini

She was born in Milan where she lives and works as a journalist and translator of novels (including Harry Potter, from the third volume in the series onwards), and as children's book editor for Fabbri Editori. She has also published over fifty books for children, many of which have been translated into other languages.

Illustrations: Donata Montanari

She lives and works in Piacenza. She attended the Istituto Europeo di Design (IED) in Milan, and now she works with the major publishing houses for children (La Coccinella, Mursia, Fabbri, Bompiani). Her books have been published in many different foreign countries.

A BEAUTIFUL STORY TO TALK ABOUT FOSTER CARE

Series: I NEED A STORY

A series of illustrated albums which tell beautiful stories able to deal with important and difficult themes in a delicate way.
