FEELING CLOSER TO THE RHYTHM OF A LULLABY

ROCK-A-BYE BABY

THE BOOK

A tender lullaby to talk to a baby to the rhythm of music and words since he/she is in mummy's tummy. An ongoing dialogue made by caresses, dance, sounds and poetry that cheers up, brightens and makes us feel closer.

The book was created by musician Elizabeth Garilli during workshops with moms, dads and small children.

TEXTS AND MUSIC

Elisabetta Garilli - Pianist and composer, she is an expert in applied music teaching, she is also the curator of the exhibition "Agora. Families and the city meet the music" realized in Verona. She is the author of many musical performances.

ILLUSTRATIONS

Bimba Landmann - Since 1988 she has created illustrations for children with great success both in Italy and abroad. Her books have inspired documentaries, music cds, theater performances and educational activities in schools.

Serena Abagnato - Polymaterials artist, she loves working with materials of any kind (clay, wood, natural materials, fabrics, etc...) with which she creates illustrations and numerous installations and sets for theatrical and musical performances.
