I AM RIGHT HERE

THE BOOK

Tendra is a little monkey who was born invisible to everybody, but who wants to find out about life and the world all around her. Thanks to her courage and her encounters with the other baby animals, she sets off on her journey through the forest; an adventure in which she will find out about herself, to love herself, and to discover the world around her, and which will eventually set her free and make her visible to everybody else. Since knowledge means growing and developing, growing also means finding your own place in the world.
