MARTIN THE LITTLE WOLF

THE BOOK

Martin is a little wolf who doesn't howl at the moon like all the other wolves. He loves eating cherries and he always puts a cherry-bob on his nose.

“He will never be a real wolf!” says the pack leader to the mother of the little wolf. Luckily, Martin meets a goose who, unlike the fox, looks beyond the two cherries on his nose and beyond appearances and differences.

A story for promoting a proper culture with regard to autism and helping people to relate to those who appear “different”.
