

OUT: SEPTEMBER 2012

NINO LITTLE YELLOW CHICK

Nino little yellow chick is the nickname of a very special little calf who since he was born has been different from all the other animals in the farmyard.

A delicate story created to help both young and old come to terms with a rare illness.

Two pages of the book are devoted to the Associazione Sclerosi Tuberosa AST, in collaboration with whom this volume has been created

Illustrated and bound volume 40 pages | 23 x 23 cm | From 3 years and upwards | € 15,90

Story: Maurizio Rigatti

Illustrations: Annalisa Beghelli

FOR ALL BRAVE CHILDREN AND THOSE WHO DON'T KNOW THAT THEY ARE

ISBN 978-88-95443-65-2

9 788895 443652

Series: Squared stories

Illustrated albums, with short delicate stories written for the youngest readers, and with end pages full of activities. The first two stories were written in order to provide tools that can help both young and old to deal with a course of treatment and to accept the idea of the illness.

Other titles in the series

The cat who lost its tail

Isbn 978-88-95443-44-7 | € 14,90

Created together with the Fondazione Magica Cleme and the Milan Tumours Institute

ISBN 978-88-95443-44-7

9 788895 443447