

A DIVE TO THE HEART

Memories from a farm

This is a 1st person-told story about an “urban” boy who breaks his aunt’s prohibition, in order to be accepted by his friends who live in the countryside.

The aunt, thanks to her huge sensitive skills, will save the boy from the river’s dangerous waters.

This adventure runs through sounds, smells and tastes from the countryside, to let children approach a world still so unknown to most of them.

The book includes a section with to-do activities.
