

Illustrated volume with paperboard cover • 36 pages
In 28,5 x 28,5 cm format • Age: from 7 years upwards • € 19,90

ILLUSTRATIONS

CHIARA CARRER. She's one of the most original and well-known Italian illustrators. In 1999 she won the Andersen Prize as best illustrator of the year. She has illustrated more than a hundred books, many of which have won prestigious awards world-wilde.

THE GIRL WHO POLISHES DREAMS THE STORY OF A PARK BECOME A REALITY

THE BOOK

Playful rhymes and beautiful illustrations to tell the story of a dream come true.

A project born out of the enthusiasm of a very special girl and all the people who believed in her dream. This is the amazing adventure of a group of citizens that, pulled by the spirit of cooperation and solidarity, have decided to revive an abandoned place, transforming it - with natural materials and energy-saving systems - in a new place open to everyone. An example of how through the interest and concern for the environment, for other people and for yourself, It's really possible to create a better world.

THE AUTHORS

SABINA COLLOREDO, texts. A well-established and respected author for both children and adults, she has worked for a number of important Italian and foreign publishers, and has had her work translated world-wilde.

FRANCESCA LENZI, texts. Architect and founding member of the Cooperative Le Ali. For many years she has been cultivating the dream of being able to live more consciously her own life. This intention has become a reality in many projects that she has promoted and carried out.

AN INTENSE BOOK TO TALK ABOUT A BEAUTIFUL EXPERIENCE