

Series "THE CIRCLE STORIES"

THE CURIOUS STORY ABOUT KINGS,
PRINCES AND THE GAMES INVENTERS

Once upon a time, in the far kingdom of Tortolonia, three princes so special that they used to need games which no-one could invent. Till a day, when on the skyline, something new appeared... This book was created thanks to the wishes of the Pandeia Foundation of Turin, which from 1993 has promoted ventures to assist children in difficulties, and it has been inspired because of To.is experience, a workshop in which designers, artists and pedagogists from different countries have met to create games created by considering the differences of the children who will use them.
